Don't Wait to Acquire The Top Talent You Need

In recruiting, time is of the essence. You need the right people and you need them now. When your goals are ambitious, requiring an immediate link of people and performance, Sentigy can expedite the process of acquiring top talent. While you maintain your focus on day-t-o-day operations, we'll make sure you have the employees you need to succeed.

If you are an organization or department who needs support with large hiring initiatives or would like to achieve greater cost efficiencies by outsourcing your employee recruiting, you can benefit tremendously from Sentigy's project-based recruiting services.

Sentigy brings subject-matter expertise, methodology and proven tools to help you recruit effectively and efficiently. We work onsite or off, and utilize Sentigy PathwaysSM to ensure your sourcing, screening, hiring and on-boarding processes are aligned with your business objectives.

With Sentigy, you will manage your recruiting costs while developing the team necessary to keep you competitive. Our team:

- Researches and sources candidates who meet your high standards
- Pre-screens candidates using the criteria we work with you to establish
- Interviews those who stand out from the crowd in preparation for your final review
